Figure 2. Differences in how often parents define words to children when they are reading based on language of the book and SES. Responses are based on a 5-point Likert-type scale in which 0 = not at all and 5= always. There was a significant interaction (p = .011). Error bars represent +/- 1 SE.